

San Antonio Transit presents

Saturday IN THE PARK

A Musical & Visual Tribute to the Songs & Legacy of Chicago*

An epic theatrical concert experience that span generations.

Relive the legendary music of Chicago in a powerful multimedia show that blends live performance, storytelling, and stunning visuals on the big screen. Performed by award-winning tribute band San Antonio Transit, this four-act theatrical production traces the band's journey across four defining eras—from bold beginnings to chart-topping classics and lasting legacy. From wardrobe to stage design, era-inspired details immerse audiences in each chapter of the band's evolution—ideal for performing arts centers and large-scale private events.

This isn't just a tribute show. It's a celebration.

With soaring vocals and a driving horn section, San Antonio Transit delivers the iconic songs of Chicago with the kind of energy that gets guests on their feet and keeps the room buzzing long after the final encore.

The music of Chicago has connected audiences around the world for decades—but the band itself can't be in every city. Saturday in the Park brings this extraordinary music to audiences everywhere with care, intention, and deep respect for its legacy.

THE SHOW: FOUR ACTS. FOUR ERAS. ONE SOUNDTRACK.

ACT I – From the Big Thing to C.T.A. Late 1960s – Early 1970s

We trace the formation of Chicago, from early experimentation to a bold new sound that fused rock, jazz, and horns in a way no one had heard before.

ACT II – Caribou Ranch: The Hit Machine 1970s

Experience Chicago at its commercial and creative peak at the private Caribou Ranch in Colorado, delivering the songs that dominated radio, filled arenas, and defined a generation of fans.

ACT III – From Tragedy into Transformation Late 1970s – 1980s

This act highlights the loss of founding member Terry Kath, and the challenges that followed. The band transformed adversity into music marked by emotional depth and reflection with new producer David Foster and the ballad era no one can forget.

ACT IV – The Road to the Hall of Fame Then to Now

Legacy. Longevity. Celebration.

The finale and encore honors Chicago's enduring influence, celebrating decades of music that continue to unite and inspire people from all walks of life – affirming the band's place in history.
